

I am speaking out against the expanding of LPFM service. Our local Christian station K-love which is heard through a translator service would be effected. K-love serves an important role in providing wholesome and entertaining programming to thousands of listeners and is listened to by young and old alike.